We express our sincere sorrow for those people who lost their lives in the disaster of the 19th Typhoon Habigis, and our deep sympathy for all those affected. Iruma International Friendship Society

WAS EVERYTHING ALL RIGHT WITH YOU?

Typhoon Habigis caused extensive damages to all of eastern Japan on October 12, and Iruma was not an exception. The record-making rainfall caused Iruma-gawa and Furo-gawa rivers to overflow and flooded many houses above/under floor level. We had over 1,000 evacuees in total at several evacuation sites. This gave us a lot of lessons about disaster preparedness. The Iruma International Friendship Society wants to hear the voices of you, who experienced a disaster in a foreign country, so that your needs will be reflected in future city's policy. Send your suggestions to:

WHAT ARE THOSE PAPERS FOR? HINTS FOR "NENMATSU CHOSEI" YEAR-END ADJUSTMENT

Have you already been given papers for tax adjustment from your company? The Information Desk receives every year inquiries about the papers. This is a part of procedures called year-end adjustment (年末調整 'nenmatsu chosei') to allow your employer to adjust your income tax for you, taking into consideration various tax deduction items. So as an employee, you need to report on these papers your tax situation to your employer, such as your dependents and their estimated income, your life or earthquake insurance payment, mortgage interest etc. If you skip the procedures, or if you quit a job in the middle of the year, or in some other cases, you need to file a final tax return by yourself by March 16 next year.

You may be given three kinds of application forms; (1) one for dependent exemption, (2) one for one spouse exemption and (3) one for insurance premium exemption. In the form (1), you need to list up all family members who rely on your income, with their MY numbers. The form (2) newly started last year, and requires the details of estimated incomes of you and your spouse. With the (3) form, you can claim a deduction for insurance/pension premium payment, and need to attach certificates of payment which have mailed from your insurance company or the Japan Pension Service.

Form (1) looks like this.

Note that if you have a house mortgage, you can claim tax deduction but you need to file final tax return by yourself for the first year; for the second year on, you can claim through your company's adjustment. Also when you claim a dependent tax exemption for your overseas relatives, you need to attach documents to prove family relationships (such as birth certificates with translation) and records of remittance issued by a financial institution.

These are very much complicated forms. The Information Desk for Foreign Residents is happy to help you complete these forms. Bring the certificates of payments or other relevant documents.

HOW TO READ IRUMA'S FLOOD HAZARD MAP

Management)

After the heavy damage caused by Typhoon Hagibis, people became interested in hazard maps which each local government has made and published to show estimated damages by earthquakes, floods and other natural disasters. In Iruma, you can find the city's hazard maps: http://www.city.iruma.saitama.jp/shisei/bousai /bousai_list/1007340.html

There are three maps on this page, and the second one shows the records of floods from 2002 to 2016. The dark pink areas have records of above–floor-level floods more than four times, while white areas have no record of floods. The yellow areas show the landslide disaster caution zones. Make full use of this information for your safety. Inquiries: Kiki Kanri-ka (Section for Crisis

SPECIAL EXHIBISION OF CITY MUSEUM HISTORY OF SAYAMA TEA

Interpretation through Historical Papers

To celebrate the 200th anniversary of the trade of Sayama Tea, a special exhibition featuring tea production in Saitama is now being held at the City Museum ALIT until December 8, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

There used to be brand teas called Kawagoe -cha and Jiko-cha in Musashi Province, which disappeared in time. The production of tea restarted several hundred years later at the foot of Sayama Hills, and Sayama cha was born with the technique of tea leaf steaming.

This exhibition reviews the origin and renaissance of Sayama tea using historical papers and other key materials.

Admission is 200 yen for adults. Free for students and children. Free for everybody on November 14. The Museum is closed on Monday. Inquiries: City Museum ALIT 204-2934-7711
